GELATIN-SILVER PRINT, 14⁷/₁₆ X 11³/₈ INCHES
INITIALED BY CORNELL CAPA
APERTURE LIMITED-EDITION PHOTOGRAPH

Aperture published Robert Capa: Photographs in 1996 with a foreword by Henri Cartier-Bresson. This photograph of Pablo Picasso and Françoise Gilot appears on the cover alongside an image of an industrial worker in Saarland, Germany from 1934. As the first true retrospective of Capa's photographs, the book encompasses the diversity of his life's work, featuring the war images for which he earned critical and popular acclaim, as well as his memorable peacetime photographs. Aperture also published Heart of Spain: Robert Capa's Photographs of the Spanish Civil War in 1999.

ESTIMATED RETAIL VALUE: $2,500

One raffle ticket for each donation of $100. The raffle winner will be announced at the event and online on Wednesday, October 24. The winner need not be present.
